So the amendment in the nature of a substitute was not agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BONIOR, assumed the Chair.

When Mr. SKAGGS, Chairman, pursuant to clause 2(d) of rule XXIII, reported that on a recorded vote in the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union on an amendment to the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation, the votes of the Delegates and of the Resident Commissioner from Puerto Rico were decisive.

The Clerk then read the amendment, as follows:

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution if ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after its submission to the States for ratification:

"ARTICLE—

"SECTION 1. Prior to each fiscal year, Congress shall adopt a statement of receipts and outlays for such fiscal year in which total outlays are not greater than total receipts. Congress may amend such statement provided revised outlays are not greater than revised receipts. Congress may provide in such statement for a specific excess of outlays over receipts by a vote directed solely to that subject in which three-fifths of the whole number of each House agree to such excess. Congress and the President shall ensure that actual outlays do not exceed the outlays set forth in such statement.

"SEC. 2. Total receipts for any fiscal year set forth in the statement adopted pursuant to the first section of this Article shall not increase by a rate greater than the rate of increase in national income in the second prior fiscal year, unless a three-fifths majority of the whole number of each House of Congress shall have passed a bill directed solely to approving specific additional receipts and such bill has become law.

"SEC. 3. Prior to each fiscal year, the President shall transmit to Congress a proposed statement of receipts and outlays for such fiscal year consistent with the provisions of this Article.

"SEC. 4. Congress may waive the provisions of this Article for any fiscal year in which a declaration of war is in effect.

"SEC. 5. Total receipts shall include all receipts of the United States except those derived from borrowing and total outlays shall include all outlays of the United States except those for the repayment of debt principal.

"SEC. 6. The amount of Federal public debt as of the first day of the second fiscal year beginning after the ratification of this Article shall become a permanent limit on such debt and there shall be no increase in such amount unless three-fifths of the whole number of each House of Congress shall have passed a bill approving such increase and such bill has become law.

"SEC. 7. Congress shall enforce and implement this Article by appropriate legislation.

"SEC. 8. This Article shall take effect for the fiscal year 2000 or for the second fiscal year beginning after its ratification, whichever is later."

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BONIOR, pursuant to clause 2(d) of rule XXIII, put the question de novo,

The question being put, viva voce,

Will the House agree to said amendment in the nature of a substitute?

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mr. BONIOR, announced that yeas had it.

Mr. PRICE demanded that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays, which demand was supported by one-fifth of the Members present, so the yeas and nays were ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device.

So the amendment in the nature of a substitute was agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore, Mrs. UNSOELD, pursuant to clause 2(d) of rule XXIII, declared the House resolved into the Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union for the further consideration, pursuant to House Resolution 331, of the joint resolution (H.J. Res. 103) proposing an amendment to the Constitution to provide for a balanced budget for the United States Government and for greater accountability in the enactment of tax legislation.

Mr. SKAGGS, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, resumed the chair; and after some time spent therein,

25.10 RECORDED VOTE

A recorded vote by electronic device was ordered in the Committee of the Whole on the following amendment in the nature of a substitute submitted by Mr. WISE:

Strike all after the resolving clause and insert the following:

That the following article is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the Constitution if ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several States within seven years after its submission to the States for ratification:

"ARTICLE

"SECTION 1. Total outlays of the operating funds of the United States for any fiscal year shall not exceed total receipts to those funds for that fiscal year.

"SECTION 2. The Congress may waive the provisions of this article for any fiscal year in which a declaration of war is in effect. The provisions of this article may be waived for any fiscal year in which the United States is engaged in military conflict which causes an imminent and serious military threat to national security and is so declared by a joint resolution, adopted by a majority of the whole number of each House of Congress, that becomes law. If real economic growth has been or will be negative for two consecutive quarters, Congress may by law, passed by a majority of the whole number of each House of Congress, waive this article for the current and next fiscal year.

"SECTION 3. Not later than the first Monday in February in each calendar year, the President shall transmit to the Congress a proposed budget for the United States Government for the fiscal year beginning in that calendar year in which total outlays of the operating funds of the United States for that fiscal year shall not exceed total receipts to those funds for that fiscal year.

"SECTION 4. Total receipts of the operating funds shall exclude those derived from net borrowing. Total outlays of the operating funds of the United States shall exclude those for repayment of debt principal and for capital investments that provide long-term economic returns but shall include annual principal and interest payments for borrowing on capital investments. The receipts (including attributable interest) and outlays of the Federal Old-Age and Survivors Insurance Trust Fund and the Federal Disability Insurance Trust Fund shall not be counted as receipts or outlays for purposes of this article.

"SECTION 5. Congress shall enforce and implement this article by appropriate legislation, which may rely on estimates of outlays and receipts.

"SECTION 6. This section and section 5 of this article shall take effect upon ratification. All other sections of this article shall take effect beginning with fiscal year 2001 or the second fiscal year beginning after its ratification, whichever is later."
